What data we collect

We collect your Full Name and Email on our website Contact Us form. We are the sole owners of the information collected on this site. We only have access to the information you voluntarily give us. We will use your information to respond to you, regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone (any third parties). We use your information to send you updates about us and our services but only once you have given us permission to do so.

What will we do with your information?

We will process the data you supply in order to provide any service you have requested when you sign-up on our website. We will only use your personal data for the purposes you have permitted, and we will not share it for marketing purposes outside of Rascular Technology. unless you have given us permission to do so.

We may use your data for the following:

To provide our services arising from any engagements entered between you and us, activities or online content and to deal with your requests and enquiries.

For "service administration purposes", which means that we may contact you for reasons related to the service, activity or online content you have signed up for.

To contact you about a submission you have made, including any content you provide.

To provide you with information about our services, activities or online content that you request from us and to provide you with information about other services we offer that are similar to those that you have already purchased or enquired about.

To provide you with information about our services we feel may interest you. If you are an existing client, we will only contact you by electronic means (e-mail) with information about services similar to those which were the subject of a previous instruction or engagement or negotiations of such to you. If you are not an existing client, and where we permit selected third parties (Mailchimp) to use your data, we will contact you by electronic means only if you have consented to this.

Note: We will only contact you with your consent.

Note: We do not rent, sell or exchange your information with any third party.

Where your data is held

Your data is held on secure servers operated by Jump PR Ltd in the UK. Our website has an SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) certification which provides world-class data protection and increases browsing confidence for our visitors and enables us to securely store confidential data using our website. We provide essential security and encryption to protect our login and administrative areas within our site and keep our customers and visitors data safe.

Data security

When you give your personal data to Rascular Technology Ltd we will process that data in accordance with our responsibilities under the Data Protection Act 1998, the GDPR 2018 and the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 and the amended version of 2011 and other relevant legislation. We will keep your data safe and secure. To prevent unauthorised access, maintain data accuracy and ensure the correct usage of information, we monitor and adjust our physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure your personal data while in our care, or in the care of any outside suppliers with whom we may contract to process your data on our behalf. Our outside supplier is Mailchimp for the purpose of marketing mailers to you if you have consented to us doing so in the first instance.

Cookies

What are cookies? In general, cookies are used to retain user preferences, store information for things like shopping carts, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better.

Rascular Technology Ltd use cookies solely for admin login for administrative users, the contact form and comments made on the blog.

You may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser. We suggest consulting the Help section of your browser or visit the About Cookies website which offers guidance for all modern browsers.

Consent

By consenting to this privacy notice you are giving us permission to process your data (your name and your email address) specifically for the purpose identified. Consent is required for Rascular Technology Ltd to process both types of personal data, but it must be explicitly given. On the contact form you can request for Rascular Technology Ltd to contact you or answer a question. Therefore, in this instance you give consent for a member of Rascular Technology Ltd to email you as a direct result of your giving us your name and email via the form. We will not process your information unless you specifically give us permission to do so in future correspondence.

You may withdraw consent at any time by contacting ephraim@rascular.com
